

Learning Activity B-2

Possible Points: 25 Passing Score: 20/25

		Exemplary	Approaching	Developing
Content and Critical Thinking	Score __/10	10	5	0
		Response analytically conveys how Dr. Reeves' comments connect formative assessments with instruction; Ideas are thoughtful and examine the importance of the role that formative assessments play in continuous academic success;	Response attempts at connecting Dr. Reeves' ideas about formative assessments and instruction; However, few solid links are made to do so;	Response does not connect Dr. Reeves' ideas about formative assessments and instruction; No critical thinking is apparent;
Documentation	__/10	5	2	0
		Relays numerous connections about Dr. Reeves' comments on formative assessments and instruction; Provides valuable insight about personal experiences on providing students feedback in the classroom;	Makes subtle connections about Dr. Reeves' comments on formative assessments and instruction; Little insight is provided on personal experiences about providing students feedback in the classroom;	No connections about Dr. Reeves' comments on formative assessments and instruction; No reflection is provided on personal experiences about providing students feedback in the classroom;

Mechanics		5	3	0
		Cohesive and fluent response of at least two to three double-spaced pages or six developed paragraphs; Proper grammar and spelling usage;	Comprehensible response, but lacks development; Some grammar and spelling errors;	Incomprehensible response; lacks clarity; Unorganized thoughts; poor grammar and spelling;